Looking Back

Breakfast on the Go

Our friends at @portosbakery fueled the morning with delicious baked goods and energizing drinks to kickstart the day. Nothing makes us happier than seeing our residents smile on the run!

What Residents are Saying

ET.

"Mario and Arturo consistently went above and beyond, making our lives significantly easier over the past few years. They've truly become like family. We're also deeply grateful to Adrian, Ryan, and the entire team for their continued efforts to make us feel valued and appreciated."

Local Feature

Endless Color

Tucked away on Topanga Canyon Boulevard, Endless Color is the neighborhood's go-to spot for artisanal, wood-fired pizza and exceptional vibes. This local gem may look unassuming, but inside you'll find a lively atmosphere—complete with a killer selection of vinyl records for sale—and a menu built around quality. Beyond their signature thin-crust pizzas, the spot is praised for its curated selection of craft beers, hard kombucha, and biodynamic wines, all best enjoyed on their charming, dog-friendly outdoor patio after a canyon hike.

Live Well

Día de los Muertos Family Festival

Get Ready for the Day of the Dead!

Mark your calendars! The spectacular Annual Main Street Canoga Park Día de los Muertos Family Festival is returning for its 25th year! While the full celebration happens right after Halloween on Sunday, November 2nd, the spirit of the holiday is already building. Prepare to join over 35,000 attendees on Sherman Way for this vibrant, free community event featuring a massive classic car show, elaborate cultural altars (ofrendas), mesmerizing Aztec dancers, live music, and endless family fun. Don't miss this beautiful San Fernando Valley tradition that honors life and remembrance
